You don't have to be Greek to enjoy the Greek Food Festival, there's something here for everyone. You can experience the flavors of Greece right in Chandler.

Without a doubt the highlight of the three-day festival, is the delicious array of mouth watering time-honored delicacies that will satisfy any appetite. Weeks prior to the event, several dozen church volunteers work to hand-prepare favorite dishes such as Dolmathes (grapevine leaves stuffed with ground beef, seasoned rice and herbs), Spanakopita (thin filo dough filled with spinach and cheeses), and Pastichio (Greek lasagna, baked macaroni and ground beef covered in béchamel sauce), and more. Home- made pastries like Baklava (filo dough filled with nuts and spices), Kourabiedes (a rich, shortbread-like cookies covered with powdered sugar) Loukoumathes (pastry puffs sweetened with honey and sprinkled with cinnamon). Plus many other traditional Greek foods, which are available for take home.

Greek music will fill the air, and performances by Greek Folk Dancers in authentic costumes promise to add to the atmosphere. For festival-goers who like to get involved, dance workshops. Shoppers will enjoy the "agora" marketplace offering arts and crafts, Greek imports, jewelry, CD's, books and icons. Plus numerous other vendors.
